

Frequently Asked Questions

How do I check the availability for my daughter's birthday?

Email erin@evergreencityballet.org to check availability.

How much is the deposit?

$140 is due to hold the date of the party and the remainder is due one week prior.

Are we able to come in 30 minutes early to set up?

Yes, 30 min. of set-up time is allowed.

What do I have to provide for the party?

Any decorations, cake, plates and utensils. We have a basic pink tablecloth, feel free to bring a different one if you like. We provide plenty of chairs and tables for the group.

What does the studio provide?

Craft projects, class instruction and two ballerinas that lead the party. All you have to do is sit back, enjoy and take photos! We also provide chairs, tables and a tablecloth.

Who leads the party? Are they in costume?

Yes, we have two ballerina instructors that lead the party dressed up in tutus.

What if I have boys coming?

We have with pirate hats and capes for the boys to dress up in and a variety of craft project options.

Do the girls get to dress up?

Yes, they have tutus and butterfly wings to wear for the duration of the party however, they are not to take home.

What would you suggest the children be instructed to wear?

We would recommend comfortable clothing that is easy to move in. Some girls may have leotards and tights and they are more than welcome to wear their ballet clothes.
